

Ideas for English home learning

Make a set of word cards. How quickly can you read them?	Read a recipe together to help your grown ups do some cooking.	Make a card for a friend you miss.
Play I spy and write down what you can see.	Watch the Jolly Phonics songs online and join in with the singing and actions.	Help your grown up read you a bed time story.

Ideas for Maths home learning.

Collect as many different coins as you can and make a coin rubbing picture.	Make a new version of "the very hungry caterpillar" with a new number of fruits eaten. Draw the pictures.	Make the number bonds of 5 and 10 using teddies and toys e.g. 6 and 4 is 10
Line up your shoes – how many do you have? You will need to touch each one as you count them.	Make a rocket and launch it counting back from 10.	Fill up 3 cups showing "empty, half full and full".
Set up a shop and make price tags for the items (up to 4p). What coins will you need to buy them?	Make a repeating pattern using 2 or 3 colours.	Draw a circle , a triangle and a square. Colour them in your favourite colours.

Ideas for wider home learning

Draw some wiggly lines. Carefully use scissors to cut along them.	Button up a top that you have put on your teddy.	Make a den in your house.
Make a concertina caterpillar by folding paper.	Hop on both legs for 10 seconds.	Make a ball and bucket – can you get the ball in the bucket 5 times in a row?
Draw a picture of the view from your window.	Have a teddy bears picnic.	Clean your bedroom to help your grown ups!