

Ideas for Physical Development home learning

Cut out a circle, square, rectangle and triangle and stick in in your book.	Button up a t-shirt that you have put on your teddy.	Practice your name using your best school handwriting.
Make a concertina caterpillar by folding paper.	Hop on both legs for 10 seconds.	Make a den in your house.
Count how long it takes you to run around the garden. Can you beat it next time?	Wash your hands whilst singing your favourite songs.	Find 3 "healthy foods" and 3 "treat" foods. Can you name each one.
Write the day of the week, keeping your letters on the line.	Make a ball and bucket – can you get the ball in the bucket 5 times in a row?	Paint or draw a picture of a caterpillar or a butterfly.

Ideas for English home learning

Gather all your teddies and write name labels for them all.	Read a recipe to help your grown ups do some cooking.	Write a shopping list of everything you would buy if you had a million pounds
Make a set of word cards. How quickly can you read them?	Make a card for a friend you miss.	Help your grown up read you a bed time story.
Write a sentence about your family and pets.	Read and spell 5 tricky words.	Record yourself reading your school reading book.
Play I spy and write down what you can see.	Re-write your favourite story. Can you change any parts of it e.g. the characters?	Play scrabble (or a similar game) with a family member.

Ideas for Maths home learning.

Collect as many different coins as you can and make a coin rubbing picture.	Make a new version of “the very hungry caterpillar” with a new number of fruits eaten. Draw the pictures.	Make the number bonds of 5 and 10 using teddies and toys e.g. 6 and 4 is 10
Play hopscotch and count your jumps forwards and backwards.	Make a rocket and launch it counting back from 20.	Fill up 3 cups showing “empty, half full and full”.
Set up a shop and make price tags for the items. What coins will you need to buy them?	Make a repeating pattern using 3 colours.	Use your number line to point to one less than a number your grown-up has said.
Draw a circle and colour in half of it. Now try some different shapes.	Line up your shoes – how many pairs do you have? You will need to count in 2’s.	Keep a tally of how many days you are not in school.

Ideas for wider activities home learning.

With help make a family tree back to your great grandparents.	Find me something soft, hard, rough and fluffy.	Make a picture of a flower, labelling the parts of the flower.
Access Go Noodle and try some of the dances.	Write down facts about your favourite animals.	Record yourself performing a dance to your favourite song.
Sing a nursery rhyme.	Have a teddy bears picnic.	Make a musical instrument and play along to your favourite song.
Draw a picture of the view from your window.	Help your grown-up wash the dishes.	Clean your bedroom to help your grown ups!